Attractions

Star Ferry Pier & Victoria Harbour

The Victoria Harbour is said to be one of the world's most stunning urban landscapes, with boats transporting passengers between the deep waters of Hong Kong Island and the Kowloon Peninsula under the city's iconic skyline.

Wong Tai Sin Temple

Wong Tai Sin, Hong Kong's only landlocked district, is home to an intriguing mix of temples and towers, colour and calm, a heady mix that's quintessentially Hong Kong.

Yau Ma Tei Wholesale Fruit Market

Founded in 1913, the historic and still operating market is a cluster of brick and stone buildings with pre-WWII signboards. It is a hive of activities from 4am to 6am when fresh fruit is loaded on and off trucks, and bare-backed workers manoeuvre piles of boxes under the moon.
